HARLEM ARTS FESTIVAL 2013

BY HARLEMFOODLOCAL | JULY 1, 2013 | IN FOR THE LOVE OF HARLEM

Over this past weekend Marcus Garvey Park (in Central South Harlem) was transformed for the second year in a row into The Harlem Arts Festival. Packed with food trucks (YES!! Bring those food trucks Uptown!), and artists of the visual, dance, and musical persuasions, Keith and I saw adults and kids having a great time all over the park. The Event Staff was attentive and available throughout, and if this year's great turnout is indicative of future successes, the Harlem Arts Festival is going to be an event to look forward to each summer.
